Dear Sir

Draft Employment Tax Incentive Bill

The Company has had sight of the Bill that has been issued for public comment.

In principle, the Company wishes to extend its full support for the Bill. We are confident that this approach will ensure that this Company, together with other employers in the private sector, will take up the opportunity that has been provided. We will recruit persons to the advantage of both the country and the private sector. Although the Company prides itself on the tremendous growth we have secured in employment over the past decade, your strategy to incentivise employers in the private sectors will add greater impetus to the whole employment initiative.

The Company is supportive of all the Government actions that give priority to employment creation. This Bill will really kick-start employment creation.

The benefits of employment, especially the dignity of having work, are well known.

We look forward to the further processes of the Bill, culminating in it becoming law in due course. We feel that this Bill is a priority that should be fast tracked through the parliamentary process.

Yours faithfully

C J C BURGER
Human Resources Director
