And

SOUTHERN AFRICA RARE GAME BREEDERS HOLDINGS (PTY) LTD

WITH REGISTRATION NUMBER 2015/277393/07 ("SARGBH")

(Herein represented by Mr Mike De Kock duly authorised thereto by the partners)

1 BACKGROUND

WHEREAS the Preamble to Constitution of the Republic of South Africa encourages all including the organs of the state to help “heal the divisions of the past” caused by Apartheid Laws, Policies, and Practices (“Apartheid”);

WHEREAS ownership of land and game animals was one such racial divisions used to deprive black people of access to land and its benefits of owning game animals;

WHEREAS the North West Parks and Tourism Board (“NWPTB”) Game Donation Policy enabled NWPTB to donate viable game animals to game farming entrants, particularly those previously disallowed by Apartheid;

WHEREAS rare game breeding requires specialist knowledge and huge capital investment that new entrants to game farming may not readily have;

WHEREAS Southern Africa Rare Game Breeders Holdings (Pty) Ltd (“SARGBH”) has the requisite skills, financial and land resources for rare game breeding and is willing to empower emerging black game farmers;

WHEREAS in March 2015 the North West Provincial Executive Council (“EXCO”) Resolution approved a Game Transformation Donation Partnership with SARGBH to empower North West Citizens, based on Black Economic Empowerment (“BEE”);

WHEREAS NWPTB was repealed and replaced by NWPB in terms of North West Parks Act (No. 3 of 2015);

WHEREAS some of the transformation objects of the NWPB Act, section 4(d) & 4(e) are “to create enabling environment for access to markets for new entrants in the wildlife sector in the Province; and to contribute to the establishment of enabling environment for job creation in the wildlife sector in the Province; and

WHEREAS NWPB is willing to work with EXCO and SARGBH in order to achieve the wildlife sector transformation objects of the NWPB Act.

NOW THEREFORE THE PARTIES AGREE TO

Enter into a BEE joint-venture deal to transform the wildlife sector in the Province based on EXCO Resolution, NWPB Act and Policies, and SARGBH's resources.

6 DISPUTE PROVISIONS

For purposes of dispute provisions the 1st two state parties, NWPB and READ, are jointly referred hereto as one "Party" (consistent with chapter 3 of the 1996 South African Constitution that discourages legal action between organs of the state), and the 2nd is SARGBH as separate Party hereto, and the two collectively referred to as the "Parties".

- 6.1 Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or related thereto, whether directly or indirectly, shall be dealt with in terms of clause 6. A dispute within this Agreement or clause 6 exists once Parties notify each other in writing of the nature of the dispute and requires the resolution of the dispute in terms of this clause 6.
- 6.2 The Party claiming that a dispute has arisen must, within seven (7) days of the date on which the dispute is said to have arisen, give written notice to the other Party to the dispute, specifying the nature of the dispute.
- 6.3 The Parties nominated representatives shall, within a period of fourteen (14) days of receipt of the notice referred to in clause 6.2 above, meet in good faith in an attempt to settle such dispute or difference through informal negotiations.
- 6.4 The Parties nominated representatives shall be authorised by Parties hereto resolve the dispute.
- 6.5 If the negotiation between the nominated representatives does not result in a written resolution agreement to the dispute between the Parties within a period of seven (7) days from the declaration of the dispute, the Parties must refer the dispute for resolution by way of mediation in accordance with the rules of the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa ("AFSA").
- 6.6 In the event of the mediation envisaged in clause 6.5 failing in terms of the rules of AFSA the matter must, within fourteen (14) days thereafter, be referred to arbitration as envisaged in the clauses below.

6.7 The Parties hereto agree that arbitration expedited in accordance with AFSA's rules for expedited arbitration by one (1) arbitrator appointed by agreement between the Parties, including any appeal against the arbitrator's decision. If the Parties cannot agree on the arbitrator within a period of fourteen (14) days after the referral of the dispute to arbitration, the arbitrator shall be appointed by the Secretariat of AFSA.

6.8 The provisions of clause 6 shall not preclude any of the two Parties hereto from access to an appropriate court of law for some interim relief in respect of urgent matters by way of an interdict or mandamus.

6.9 Pending finalisation of the dispute resolution in terms of clause 6, the Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of a division of the High Court of the Republic of South Africa that governs their legal actions.

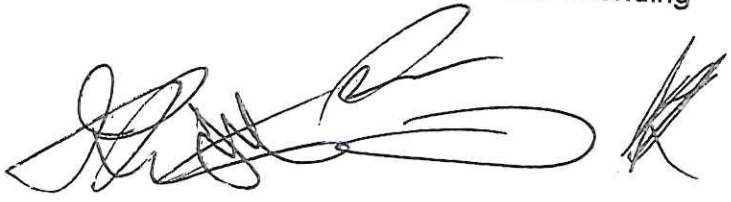

6.10 References to AFSA shall include its successor or its nominee recommended in writing.

6.11 Clause 6 is a separate, divisible agreement from the rest of this Agreement and shall remain in effect, even if this Agreement terminates or nullified or cancelled for whatsoever reason or cause.

7 BREACH AND TERMINATION

7.1 In the event any Party, consistent with clause 6, commits a breach of any of the conditions contained in this Agreement and remains in default for a period of thirty (30) days after dispatch of a written notice by registered post by the other Party(ies) requiring the defaulting Party (ies) to remedy such breach, the other Parties shall be entitled to, and without prejudice to any other rights available at law:-

7.1.1 Take those necessary measures to remedy the breach or appoint a third party to do so, and to recover their costs in doing so from the offending Party(ies); and / or

Handwritten signatures in black ink, appearing to be two distinct signatures, one larger and more stylized than the other.

7.1.2 Immediately demand due performance of the terms of this Agreement, in addition to claiming damages that such Party(ies) is legally entitled to; or

7.1.3 Immediately cancel this Agreement by means of a registered notice addressed to the other Parties, in addition to claiming damages that such Party(ies) is legally entitled to.

7.2 This Agreement shall automatically terminate on 06th June 2025.

7.3 The NWPB and READ shall after 5 (five) years of commencement of this Agreement be entitled, in their sole and unfettered discretion, to terminate this Agreement on thirty (30) days' written notice to SARGBH.

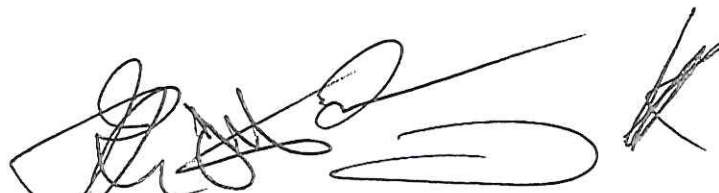

7.4 Notwithstanding 7.3 above, NWPB and READ shall only exercise such right of termination if they both are of the view that the animals are not breeding at acceptable rates or if the primary objective of this Agreement (as set out in clause 4 above) are not being achieved. In such an event, all the animals donated and introduced to SARGBH shall be returned to the NWPB (at its cost) and none of the Parties hereto shall have any claims against the other Party(ies) from whatsoever cause arising.

8 GENERAL

8.1 All Parties shall bear their own costs arising from or associated with the negotiation and / or preparation of this Agreement.

8.2 This Agreement is the sole record of the agreement concluded between the Parties. Any amendment hereto shall not be in force and with effect, unless reduced to writing and signed by all the Parties.

8.3 No indulgence, extension of time, relaxation or latitude shown, granted or allowed on the part of any of the Parties in exercising any right conferred upon such a Party in terms of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver or the novation of any such right.

8.4 It is understood that all the Parties hereto are separate legal entities and that neither Party will act or create any obligation on behalf of or in the name of the other, except as otherwise provided in terms of this Agreement.

8.5 The Parties shall at all times during the continuance of this Agreement observe the principles of good faith towards one another in the performance of their obligations in terms of this Agreement and will accordingly:-

8.5.1 Act reasonably, honestly and in good faith;

8.5.2 Perform their obligations diligently and with reasonable care, and

8.5.3 Make full disclosure to each other of any matter that may affect the implementation of this Agreement.

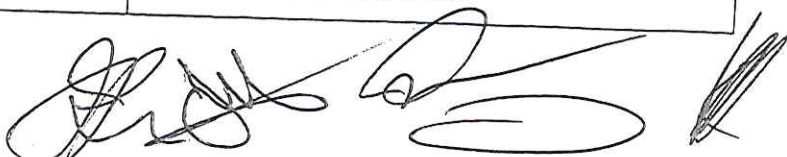

8.6 No Party to this Agreement may delegate, cede or assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, unless the written consent of the other Parties to this Agreement has first been obtained, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.
