CERTIFICATE IN TERMS OF NATIONAL ASSEMBLY RULE 279(4)

South African Reserve Bank Amendment Bill, 2018
(Private Member's Bill)

I, Noluthando Mpikashe, certify that South African Reserve Bank Amendment Bill, 2018, intended for introduction in the National Assembly by Mr JS Malema, MP is—

- (a) consistent with existing legislation, taking into account that the South African Reserve Bank Amendment Bill, 2018, intends to amend the South African Reserve Bank Act, 1989 (Act No. 90 of 1989); and
- (b) properly drafted in the form and style which conforms to legislative drafting practice.

There is a constitutional concern related to the South African Reserve Bank Amendment Bill. Kindly see the opinion attached hereto in accordance with the National Assembly Rule 279(5).

DATED AT CAPE TOWN ON THE 16th DAY OF AUGUST 2018

Parliamentary Legal Adviser

Our Ref: P6/2018
Date: 2018.08.16

Mr. JS Malema, MP
Member of the National Assembly

Dear Sir,

RE: COMPLIANCE WITH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY RULE 279(4)

1. On 26 May 2016, the National Assembly adopted the First Report of Rules Committee of National Assembly, dated 24 May 2016. This report discussed the comprehensive review of the Rules applicable in the National Assembly, and proposed amendments to these Rules. These amendments came into effect on 27 May 2016.
2. One of the amendments requires that all Bills introduced by a committee or an Assembly member be certified by the Chief Parliamentary Legal Adviser or a designated Parliamentary Legal Adviser:

“279. Introduction of bills in Assembly

(4) A Bill introduced by a committee or an Assembly member must be certified by the Chief Parliamentary Legal Adviser or a parliamentary legal adviser designated by him or her as being—

 - (a) consistent with the Constitution and existing legislation; and
 - (b) properly drafted in the form and style which conforms to legislative drafting practice.”
3. As the South African Reserve Bank Amendment Bill, 2018 has already been considered by our Office, kindly find attached hereto a certificate as required by National Assembly Rule 279(4).

Yours faithfully,

Noluthando Mpikashe
Parliamentary Legal Adviser
