MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE DEEDS REGISTRIES AMENDMENT BILL, 2009

1. PURPOSE

The Deeds Registries Amendment Bill, 2009 (hereinafter referred to as “the Bill”), proposes certain amendments to the Deeds Registries Act, 1937 (Act No. 47 of 1937) (hereinafter referred to as “the Act”), pertaining to the substitution of certain obsolete expressions and the improvement of the application of the Act as set out in this Memorandum.

2. OBJECTS OF THE BILL

- 2.1.1. The amendment proposed in Clause 1(a) of the Bill is consequential to the promulgation of the Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act, 2002 (Act No. 28 of 2002), which provides for the discontinuation of the registration of mineral rights in a deeds registry. The substitution for the expression “Supreme Court” of the expression “High Court”, seeks to rectify the present legal situation with reference to the High Court.
- 2.1.2. Registrars of deeds are not obliged to follow the practice and procedure directives that are issued from time to time by the chief registrar of deeds. The result is that different practices and procedures are being followed in the different deeds registries. The amendment proposed in Clause 1(b) of the Bill seeks to eliminate this problem by obliging registrars to comply with directives and thus promote uniformity in all deeds registries throughout the country.
- 2.2. It often happens that members of the deeds registries regulations board cannot attend meetings due to unforeseen circumstances. The absence of members to a meeting may lead to a quorum not being formed and the meeting to be cancelled. The amendment of section 9, as proposed in Clause

2 of the Bill, to provide for the appointment of alternate members to the board, is a necessary and logical step.

- 2.3. Section 17(2) of the Act provides for the disclosure of the full names and marital status of a person in a deed that needs to be lodged for registration or record or execution in a deeds registry. The proposed amendment of section 17(2), in Clause 3 of the Bill, is necessary to also provide for the disclosure of the full names and marital status of a person in documents, other than deeds, that need to be registered, recorded, or executed by a registrar of deeds.
- 2.4. Section 34 of the Act allows an owner of a piece of land to apply for a certificate of registered title for his/her undivided share in land, only in instances where such land is owned in joint ownership. The proposed amendment of section 34, in Clause 4 of the Bill, caters for the issuing, to any owner, of a certificate of registered title of any fraction of his/her undivided share in such land.
- 2.5. The amendment of the definition of "Master", as proposed in Clause 5 of the Bill, is consequential to the change of name of the High Court, as contemplated in Clause 1(a) of the Bill.
- 2.6. Clause 6 of the Bill contains the short title.

7. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- 7.1 The State Law Advisers and the Department of Land Affairs are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution, since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or section 76 of the Constitution applies.
- 7.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
