(3) A police official contemplated in subsection (1) may use such force as may reasonably be necessary to overcome resistance to the entry or search. 5

(4) Any entry and search in terms of subsection (1) may only be executed by day, unless the execution thereof by night is reasonable and justifiable.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE SECOND-HAND GOODS BILL, 2008

1. BACKGROUND

The Second-Hand Goods Act, 1955 (Act No. 23 of 1955) (the Act), at present regulates the second-hand industry and provides for a legislative framework within which dealers in second-hand goods must operate. The drafters of the Act could not have foreseen the major developments in technology since 1956, especially with regard to electronic equipment. It is insufficient to amend the Act, as the principles on which the Act are founded must be reviewed in order to address industry concerns, facilitate policing and contribute towards government policy. The draft Second-Hand Goods Bill, 2005, was published by Notice 1937 of 2005 in the Gazette on 28 October 2005 for comment. All comments received were considered. Government and the organised portion of the industry are keen to establish a legal framework that will limit the possibility of diffusing stolen goods through the marketplace. The structure of the Bill allows the Minister to adapt the regulatory environment for each of the industry segments in order to ensure fair and effective implementation measures. Dealers who are members of accredited associations may be exempted from provisions that are effectively addressed through self-regulation or other legal provisions. Non-participating dealers must comply with all provisions. Accredited dealers' associations will therefore play a supportive role in policing the Bill through inspections and self-regulation.

2. OBJECTS

The objects of the Bill are to regulate the business of dealers in second-hand goods and pawnbrokers and to promote ethical standards in the second-hand goods trade.

3. BODIES CONSULTED

The draft Second-Hand Goods Bill, 2005, was published on 28 October 2005 by way of Notice 1937 of 2005 in the Gazette for comment. Comments were received from the following public and private bodies: Barloworld Ltd; MRA; Metropolitan Police Services SA; Scrap Metal Dealers; Bowman Gilfillan Attorneys; Iscor Ltd; Edward Nathan & Friedland Attorneys; RMI; NADA; MDI; Vodacom (Pty) Ltd; Cash Converters; Senwes Ltd; SAPS; Eurotrade Metals Africa; RASA; AIWO; Wesbank; ITAC; Cash Crusaders; Ford NDC; DamRail Pty Ltd; Mangaung Municipality; KPMG; VWSA and SHDP. Most of these comments will be incorporated into the regulations, being the logical level of application. Industry associations were consulted extensively on this. The published draft Bill was tabled in the ITC of NEDLAC and Government, Labour and Business agreed upon the principles contained in the Bill. No areas of disagreement were defined, while some drafting aspects were noted for referral to the Chief State Law Adviser.

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

None.

5. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

5.1 The State Law Advisers and the South African Police Service are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the provisions of section 76(1) or (2) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, since it falls within functional areas listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution, namely "Trade" and "Consumer protection".

5.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it contains no provision pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
