

UNIVERSIDAD 2010

"The university for a better world"
7th INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS ON HIGHER EDUCATION
February 8th-12th Palacio de Convenciones, Havana, Cuba

Havana, March 2009

Dear

The Ministry of Higher Education and the universities of Cuba are pleased to invite you to participate in the Seventh International Congress on Higher Education "Universidad 2008" to be held in Havana from 8 to 12 February next year. The central theme is "the universalization of university for a better world."

Your personal participation in Universidad 2010, as well as that of other authorities and faculty members from your institution, will enhance the outcomes of our congress. We are particularly interested in taking advantage of this opportunity to exchange views on the future development of higher education, on the sharing of experience and the strengthening of university cooperation.

Havana Convention Center will be the venue of this important international event. Our congress is endorsed by worldwide leading educational agencies, bodies and institutions. In its last edition in February 2008, we had 2611 participants from 60 countries and more than 1000 Cuban participants in profound debates and discussions on key issues to enhance teaching, learning and assessment in higher education.

For information concerning registration fee and other aspects related to the congress, please contact our event manager at univ2010@reduniv.edu.cu or visit our website <http://www.universidad2010.cu> and <http://www.universidad2010.com> For accommodation contact sago@havanatur.cu

We look forward to seeing you in our Congress.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Rodolfo Alarcón Ortiz
Executive Vice President
Organizing Committee
