

CONSTITUTIONAL REVIEW COMMITTEE
INDEX OF 2009 SUBMISSIONS RECEIVED

Submission by Mr Jerome Veldsman  Proposal: review of sections 6(5)(b)(ii), 16(2) (c), 35(2)(f), and 37	1
Submission by NABCAT Limpopo Request for the review of the Construction Industry Development Board Act, 2000 (ACT 38 of 2000)	2
Submission by Rashid Patel & Company on infringement of Constitutional Rights  Proposal: An amendment in the Constitution that will incorporate a provisions, which will give subjects a right to lay criminal charges against officials when they infringe constitutional rights	3
Submission by H Mcleod Proposals: (1) All references to God be removed from the Constitution to confirm the secular status of the Constitution (2) That the Constitution establishes and include basic rights in accordance with the precepts of ubuntu for all sentient beings, including the animal order.	4
Submission by Sekwele Centre for Social Reflection Proposals: (1) Scrapping of section 25 of the Constitution. (2) Limitation of section 28(2) of the Constitution so as to "restrict the conditions in which termination of pregnancy should be performed". (3) An amendment of section 29(1) of the Constitution to provide for free basic education at least up to grade twelve	5 & 6

(12)) level. (4) An amendment of section 29(1)(b) so as to relieve graduates of the legal obligation of repaying the loan obtained through the National Student Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS). (5) Request for Parliament to enact legislation to recognize Muslim marriages relying on the right to freedom of religion, belief and opinion (section 15) right to equality (section 9) and the right to cultural, religious and linguistic communities (section 31). (6) Proposal for the review of section 151 of the Constitution on the basis that the section is contradictory to itself. Submission (6) by Dr Pheko on the effectiveness of section 25 of the Constitution in addressing past injustices
Submissions by the Mpumalanga Provincial House of Traditional Leaders (MPHTL) and the National House of Traditional Leaders (NHTL). (1) The MPHTL make the following suggestions: (a) The roles and functions of Traditional councils be defined in Chapter 12 of the Constitution. (b) The status of the House be defined, whether it is public entity or part of Parliament. © The recognition of traditional leadership must include all layers of traditional leadership. (d) Intergovernmental relations must be amended to include the institution of Traditional Leadership. (e) House Financial Management must be regulated by the Parliament Financial Management Act. (2) The NHTL proposes the amendments to Chapter 12 of the Constitution (see pages 2 &amp; 3 of the legal opinion document).	7&13
Submission by Ruiters is illegible	8

Submission by Ms Anne-Marie Robb on Legal Capacity	9
Proposal: The Constitution has to make it clear that legal capacity of a person cannot be taken away from them arbitrarily. The Committee is requested to address the issue of legal capacity
Submission by Thamsanqa Ncube	10
The submission concerns itself with the connections between material and political inequality, how protests formed around demands to address the former may have positive consequences. No proposal for amendment to the Constitution as such.
Submission by Advocates for Transformation-Gauteng	11
Proposal: An amendment of section 168(3) and 172 of the Constitution.
Submission by Mr Mkhali	12
The submission concerns itself with distortions in the copies of the Constitution, which marks 10 years of freedom.
Submission by IDASA	14
The submission proposes an amendment to section 47 (1) of the Constitution to specifically make provision for certain categories of crimes that seem to erode the ethical standing of Members of Parliament (MPs).
Submission by Ismail	15
The member submitted a request for legal advice on the legal remedies available to restitution claimants who are dissatisfied with compensation paid to them in respect of their land claims.	