

The Delegation of Committee for Financial and Budgetary Affairs of the National Assembly of Viet Nam participating in the study tour to South Africa (Draft)

The objectives of the Study Tour are:

- (a) to learn about South African experiences in strengthening the role of parliament in fiscal policy, budget planning and the oversight of budget execution, at national and decentralised government levels;
- (b) learn about the committee organisation of the South African National Assembly with respect to committee involvement in budgetary decisions;
- (c) to learn of recent developments in budget planning, the medium term expenditure framework; and
- (d) to learn about the format of the presentation of the budget and the challenges of budget transparency.

The learning outcomes of the tour will be incorporated in proposals to strengthen the National Assembly of Viet Nam in its oversight role, and in its contribution to the reform processes.
