CHAPTER 2

LEGAL AID SOUTH AFRICA

Establishment of Legal Aid South Africa and its relationship with Board

2. (1) There is hereby established a national public entity as provided for in the Public Finance Management Act, to be known as Legal Aid South Africa, which is governed by a Board appointed under section 6.

(2) The Board, of which the powers, functions and duties are set out in section 4, is represented by the chief executive officer and any director or directors as may be designated by the Board.

Objects of Legal Aid South Africa

3. The objects of Legal Aid South Africa are to render or make available legal aid, legal advice and to provide legal representation to persons at state expense as envisaged in the Constitution, this Act and any other law, and to provide education and information concerning legal rights and obligations.

Powers, functions and duties of Board

4. (1) The Board may do all that is necessary or expedient to achieve the objects referred to in section 3, including the following:

- (a) Provide legal services, representation and advice, by—
- (i) employing legal practitioners;
 - (ii) employing paralegals, who are persons that are not legal practitioners but have knowledge and understanding of the law, its procedures and its social context acquired through training, education, work experience or a national registered qualification in paralegal practice; and
 - (iii) procuring the services of legal practitioners in private practice by entering into contracts or agreements with them and other entities.
- (b) Determine, in consultation with the Minister and the Minister of Finance, its own staff establishment and the terms and conditions of employment for its staff as provided for in section 18.
- (c) Purchase or otherwise acquire, hold or alienate any—
- (i) movable property; or
 - (ii) immovable property with the approval of the Minister acting in consultation with the Minister of Finance.
- (d) Hire or let any movable or immovable property.
- (e) Fix conditions subject to which legal aid is to be rendered, including—
- (i) conditions in accordance with which any rights in respect of costs recovered or recoverable in any legal proceedings or any dispute in respect of which the aid is rendered, are ceded to Legal Aid South Africa; and

- (ii) the payment of contributions to Legal Aid South Africa by persons to whom legal aid is rendered.
- (f) Provide legal representation at state expense as envisaged in the Constitution, this Act and any other law, where substantial injustice would otherwise result.
- (g) Conduct programmes to promote public awareness of constitutional and other legal rights and public understanding of the objects, role and activities of Legal Aid South Africa.
- (h) Pay out of the funds of Legal Aid South Africa such remuneration and allowances to members of the Board, their alternates and any committee members appointed in accordance with section 13 who are not in the full-time service of the State, as may be determined by the Minister of Finance from time to time.
- (i) Do all things and perform all functions as may be necessary for, or incidental to, the attainment of the objects of Legal Aid South Africa.

(2) The Board is the accounting authority of Legal Aid South Africa in accordance with section 49 of the Public Finance Management Act, and is charged with the responsibilities referred to in that Act.

Independence and impartiality of Legal Aid South Africa

5. Legal Aid South Africa, its directors, employees and agents must serve impartially and independently and exercise their powers and perform their duties and functions in good faith and without fear, favour, bias or prejudice.

Composition and appointment of Board

6. (1) The Board consists of the following 14 voting members, appointed by the Minister in writing:

- (a) A judge in active service of a court referred to in section 166(a), (b) or (c) of the Constitution, nominated by the Chief Justice of South Africa, after consultation with the Board.
- (b) Eight members who, collectively, have the skills referred to in section 7(d).
- (c) The chief executive officer.
- (d) Three employees appointed by the Board for the management of Legal Aid South Africa, and who are responsible for the management, including the financial management, of Legal Aid South Africa and who are actively involved in developing and implementing Legal Aid South Africa's strategy nominated by the Board.
- (e) The Director-General: Justice and Constitutional Development, or his or her nominee.

(2) The Minister may appoint a person to serve as an alternate in the place of any member referred to in subsection (1)(b), (c) and (d) during that member's absence from any meeting of the Board, if that person is qualified to be appointed as such member and has been nominated in the same manner as that member.

(3) A decision taken by the Board or an act performed under the authority of the Board is not invalid merely because of a vacancy on the Board or because a person who is not entitled to sit as a member sat as a member at the time the decision was taken or the act was authorised, if the decision was taken or the act was authorised by the required majority of members present at the time, who were entitled to sit as members.

(4) In the case of directors referred to in subsection (1)(b), the Board must, whenever necessary, invite nominations for the appointment of persons as directors in the manner determined by the Minister in consultation with the Board.

(5) Any vacancy on the Board arising pursuant to section 10 must be filled in accordance with this section.

Qualification for membership of Board

7. The directors must—

- (a) be fit and proper persons;
- (b) be South African citizens;
- (c) collectively, be broadly representative of the diversity of the South African population;

- (d) collectively, have skills which include business management, information technology, legal services, corporate governance, accounting or auditing skills, or community-based knowledge relevant to legal aid; and
- (e) not have been convicted of theft, fraud, perjury, or an offence under the Prevention of Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, 2004 (Act No. 12 of 2004), or have been convicted after the commencement of the Constitution of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 to the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977).

Chairperson and deputy chairperson

8. (1) The judge appointed in terms of section 6 (1)(a) is the chairperson of the Board and the Minister must, in writing designate one of the directors referred to in section 6(1)(b) as deputy chairperson of the Board, who must act as the chairperson if the position of chairperson is vacant or during the absence or incapacity of the chairperson.

(2) The deputy chairperson, when acting as chairperson as provided for in subsection (1), has all the powers, duties and functions of the chairperson.

(3) If both the chairperson and deputy chairperson are absent from a meeting of the Board, a person elected by the directors present from among themselves, must preside at that meeting.

Term of appointment

9. The chairperson, the deputy chairperson and a director referred to in section 6(1)(a), (b) and (d) and any alternate member appointed in terms of section 6(2) holds office for a term of not less than three years and not more than five years, as determined by the Minister, in writing, at the time of his or her appointment and may be reappointed for one additional term only.

Termination of membership of Board

10. (1) A director ceases to be a director of the Board when that person—

- (a) resigns on one month's written notice addressed to the Minister and the Board;
- (b) no longer meets the qualifications for membership listed in section 7; or
- (c) referred to in section 6(1)(c) and (d) is no longer in the employment of Legal Aid South Africa.

(2) The Minister may remove a director from office for—

- (a) failing to perform the duties of a director or to perform them diligently and efficiently;
- (b) permanent incapacity;
- (c) being absent from three consecutive meetings of the Board without the chairperson's leave and without good reason; or

- (d) engaging in any activity that is reasonably capable of undermining the integrity of Legal Aid South Africa.

Meetings of Board

11. (1) The Board must meet at least four times every year at a time and place as determined by the Board.

(2) (a) The secretary of the Board must, at any time, upon the request in writing of—

(i) the chairperson of the Board; or

(ii) not less than four directors, subject to paragraph (b), convene a special meeting of the Board, to be held at a time and place as the chairperson may determine.

(b) At least one of the directors referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) must be a director referred to in section 6(1)(a) or (b).

Quorum and procedure

12. (1) The quorum at any meeting of the Board is half of its members, plus one.

(2) Any decision at any meeting of the Board must be taken by a majority of votes of the directors present, and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting has a casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

- (3) The Board may determine the procedure of its meetings.

Committees of Board

13. (1) The Board may, in writing and in the interest of good governance, establish one or more committees, consisting of one or more directors, employees or other persons designated or appointed by the Board, to assist it in exercising its powers and the performance of its functions as it may deem necessary.

(2) The Board—

- (a) must determine the powers, duties and functions of a committee;
- (b) must designate a member of a committee as chairperson and, if it deems it necessary, may designate a member of a committee as deputy chairperson;
- (c) may, at any time, remove a member of a committee or dissolve a committee;
and
- (d) may determine the procedure for the conduct of the meetings of a committee.

Delegation of powers and assignment of duties or functions of Board

14. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Public Finance Management Act, the Board may, in writing, delegate any of its powers or assign any of its duties or functions imposed on or assigned to it, to any director, committee, employee or agent of Legal Aid South Africa.

(2) A delegation or assignment in terms of subsection (1)—

- (a) is subject to any conditions and directions as the Board may deem appropriate;
and
- (b) does not divest the Board of the responsibility for the exercise of the power or the performance of the function.

CHAPTER 3

PERFORMANCE OF ADMINISTRATIVE WORK OF LEGAL AID SOUTH AFRICA

Appointment of chief executive officer

15. (1) The Board must, whenever necessary, appoint a fit and proper person who has applicable knowledge and experience, as the chief executive officer of Legal Aid South Africa.

(2) The chief executive officer—

- (a) holds office—
 - (i) for an agreed term not exceeding five years, which may be renewed; and
 - (ii) on the terms and conditions as determined by the Board which must be in a written contract of employment which must include the terms and conditions of employment and set specific measurable performance standards; and
- (b) receives the remuneration, allowances and other service benefits as the Board may determine in accordance with section 18.

(3) Whenever the chief executive officer is absent, unable to perform the functions of that office or during a vacancy in the office of the chief executive officer, the chairperson, in conjunction with the chief executive officer if he or she is available, must designate a senior employee of Legal Aid South Africa, excluding members of the Board to act as the chief executive officer.

Functions of chief executive officer

16. (1) The chief executive officer under the strategic direction of the Board —

- (a) is responsible for the general administration of Legal Aid South Africa;
- (b) must manage and direct its activities to promote and give effect to the objects of Legal Aid South Africa; and
- (c) must supervise its staff.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 56 of the Public Finance Management Act, the chief executive officer has the powers and duties as may, in writing, be delegated or assigned to him or her by the Board.

CHAPTER 4

SUPPORT STRUCTURE OF LEGAL AID SOUTH AFRICA

Employees and agents of Legal Aid South Africa

17. (1) The chief executive officer must, subject to section 18—

(a) in consultation with the Board, appoint as many senior employees; and

(b) appoint as many other employees and agents, as may be necessary to assist Legal Aid South Africa, in the exercise of its powers and performance of its functions.

(2) (a) Legal Aid South Africa has the right to operate its offices and justice centres without having to seek accreditation from any law society referred to in the Attorneys Act, 1979 (Act No. 53 of 1979), and is entitled to employ candidate attorneys, subject to the provisions of the Attorneys Act, 1979.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a), “justice centre” means offices of Legal Aid South Africa which administer and provide legal aid in the Republic.

(c) Despite the provisions of paragraph (a), attorneys and candidate attorneys employed by Legal Aid South Africa must be members, in good standing, of the law society having jurisdiction and are subject to the disciplinary control of the law society in question.

Terms and conditions of employment of employees

18. (1) The Board may, in consultation with the Minister and the Minister of Finance, appoint on such conditions and at such remuneration, employees referred to in sections 15 and 17 to assist in the performance of its functions.

(2) The provisions of the Labour Relations Act, 1995 (Act No. 66 of 1995), relating to collective bargaining are applicable when the terms and conditions of employment are determined as provided for in subsection (1).

(3) Any expenditure arising from the application of this section may not exceed the appropriated budget allocation to Legal Aid South Africa in terms of the Public Finance Management Act.

Protection of client privilege in certain circumstances

19. (1) A private legal practitioner who has been instructed by Legal Aid South Africa to represent a person who qualifies for legal aid under this Act must, when requested by Legal Aid South Africa, grant access to the information and documents contained in the file relating to the person in question for the sole purpose of conducting a quality assessment of the work done by the legal practitioner.

(2) The information and documents referred to in subsection (1) remain privileged information against any other party as information between attorney and client, despite having been made available to Legal Aid South Africa.

Recovery of costs by Legal Aid South Africa

20. (1) Whenever in any judicial proceedings or any dispute in respect of which legal aid is rendered to a litigant or other person by Legal Aid South Africa, costs become payable to that litigant or other person in terms of a judgment of the court or a settlement or otherwise, it is, subject to the powers of the Board referred to in section 4 with regard to the fixing of conditions, deemed that the litigant or other person has ceded his or her rights to those costs to Legal Aid South Africa.

(2) A litigant or person referred to in subsection (1) or his or her legal representative or Legal Aid South Africa must, at any time before payment of the costs deemed in terms of subsection (1) to be ceded to Legal Aid South Africa, whether before or after those costs become payable, give the person by whom the costs are to be paid at his or her last known address and the registrar or clerk of the court concerned notice in writing that legal aid is being or has been rendered, and Legal Aid South Africa may proceed in its own name to have those costs taxed and to recover them, without being substituted on the record of the judicial proceedings concerned, if any, for the litigant in question.

(3) The costs referred to in subsection (1) must be calculated and the bill of costs concerned, if any, must be taxed or agreed as if the litigant or person to whom legal aid was rendered, had obtained the services of the legal representative acting on his or her behalf in the proceedings or dispute concerned, without the aid of Legal Aid South Africa.

Finances of Legal Aid South Africa

21. The funds of Legal Aid South Africa consist of—

- (a) money appropriated by Parliament; and
- (b) money received from any other source, and must be budgeted for, managed and accounted for, in terms of the Public Finance Management Act.

CHAPTER 5

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Provision of legal aid by direction of court in criminal matters

22. (1) A court in criminal proceedings may only direct that a person be provided with legal representation at state expense, if the court has—

- (a) taken into account—
 - (i) the personal circumstances of the person concerned;
 - (ii) the nature and gravity of the charge on which the person is to be tried or of which he or she has been convicted, as the case may be;
 - (iii) whether any other legal representation at state expense is available or has been provided; and
 - (iv) any other factor which in the opinion of the court should be taken into account; and
- (b) subject to subsection (3), referred the matter, together with any report the court may consider necessary, for the attention of Legal Aid South Africa, for evaluation and report by Legal Aid South Africa and Legal Aid South Africa has made a recommendation that the person concerned qualifies for legal representation, as provided for in subsection (2)(c)(i).

(2) (a) If a court refers a matter in terms of subsection (1)(b), Legal Aid South Africa must, in accordance with the regulations made under section 24(1) and the Legal Aid Manual, evaluate and report on the matter.

(b) The report in question must be in writing and be submitted to the registrar or the clerk of the court, as the case may be, who must make a copy thereof available to the court and the person concerned.

(c) The report must include—

- (i) a recommendation whether the person concerned qualifies for legal representation;
- (ii) particulars relating to the factors referred to in subsection (1)(a)(i) and (iii); and
- (iii) any other factor which, in the opinion of Legal Aid South Africa, should be taken into account.

(3) A court may only refer a matter in terms of subsection (1)(b) if the person concerned—

- (a)
 - (i) has applied to Legal Aid South Africa for legal representation at state expense;
 - (ii) has been refused legal representation at state expense by Legal Aid South Africa; and
 - (iii) has exhausted his or her internal right to appeal within the structures of Legal Aid South Africa against the refusal;
- (b) has applied for legal representation and has not received any response to the application within a reasonable time; or

(c) has been refused legal representation at state expense by Legal Aid South Africa and the court is of the opinion that there are particular circumstances that need to be brought to the attention of Legal Aid South Africa by the court in a report referred to in subsection (1)(a)(ii).

(4) (a) Any decision by Legal Aid South Africa in any criminal proceedings relating to—

- (i) the particular legal practitioner to be assigned to any person;
- (ii) the fee to be paid by Legal Aid South Africa to a particular practitioner;
- (iii) the number of legal practitioners to be assigned to a particular person or group of persons; or

(iv) the contribution, if any, to be paid to Legal Aid South Africa by the persons in question and when and the manner in which the fee is to be paid, is subject to review by the High Court at the instance of the person affected thereby.

(b) Legal Aid South Africa may, in any review proceedings referred to in paragraph (a)(ii), not be required to pay more than the maximum amounts determined in the Legal Aid Manual in terms of section 23(1)(c).

(5) Only a court in review proceedings may make an order relating to the matters referred to in subsection (4).

(6) In determining whether any person is entitled to legal representation at state expense and before any court orders the provision of legal representation at state expense, the legal aid applicant bears the onus of showing, on a balance of probabilities, that he or she—

(a) is unable to afford the cost of his or her own legal representation;

- (b) has made a full disclosure of all relevant facts and documents pertaining to his or her inability to pay for his or her own legal representation;
- (c) has a lifestyle that is consistent with his or her alleged inability to afford the cost of his or her own legal representation; and
- (d) has cooperated fully with any investigation conducted by Legal Aid South Africa.

(7) No accused person may receive legal representation at state expense if that person has applied for the release of an amount for reasonable legal expenses in terms of section 44(1)(b) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, 1998 (Act No. 121 of 1998), and where the court has turned down the application due to a lack of a full disclosure as required in terms of section 44(2)(b) of that Act.

Legal Aid Manual

- 23. (1) The Board must compile, review, amend and approve a Legal Aid Manual and must at least every second year review the Legal Aid Manual relating to—
- (a) the procedures in terms of which applications for legal aid are administered;
 - (b) the systems and methods whereby legal aid is delivered;
 - (c) the requirements and criteria for accreditation of private legal practitioners who render legal services to legal aid recipients on the instructions of Legal Aid South Africa and the terms and conditions subject to which such instructions are allocated to accredited legal practitioners, including the fees and disbursements that are payable by Legal Aid South Africa to accredited legal practitioners, taking into consideration the salary scales applicable to the public service; and

(d) the regulation of any other administrative matter which the Board deems necessary for the effective and efficient functioning of Legal Aid South Africa.

(2) The Board must submit the Legal Aid Manual and any amendment thereof to the Minister who must—

- (a) table the Legal Aid Manual and any amendment thereof in Parliament; and
- (b) simultaneously give notice thereof by notice in the Gazette.

(3) The Legal Aid Manual and any amendment thereof takes effect 60 days after the publication of the notice referred to in subsection (2)(b) and is binding on all persons and organisations providing legal aid assistance in terms of this Act.

(4) The Board must publish the Legal Aid Manual and any amendments thereof on its website and a copy thereof must be available for inspection at all offices of Legal Aid South Africa.

Regulations

24. (1) The Minister must, after receipt of recommendations of the Board, make regulations relating to—

- (a) the types of matters, both civil and criminal, in respect of which Legal Aid South Africa—
 - (i) provides legal aid;
 - (ii) does not provide legal aid; and

- (iii) provides limited legal aid and the circumstances in which it does so;
- (b) the requirements or criteria that an applicant must comply with to qualify for legal aid as well as the terms and conditions on which such legal aid is made available to the applicant;
- (c) the policy relating to the approval or refusal of legal aid, the termination of legal aid and appeals against refusal or termination of legal aid; and
- (d) any matter which it is necessary or expedient to prescribe for the proper implementation or administration of this Act.

(2) Any regulations made under subsection (1) must be tabled in Parliament by the Minister at least 30 days before they are published in the Gazette.

(3) The regulations made under subsection (1) may provide that any person who contravenes a provision thereof or fails to comply therewith is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year.

Amendment or repeal of laws

25. (1) The laws mentioned in the Schedule are amended or repealed to the extent indicated in the third column thereof.

(2) Any reference to "the Legal Aid Act, 1969 (Act No. 22 of 1969)" in any law must, with the changes as may be required by the context, be construed as a reference to "the Legal Aid Act, 2014".

(3) Any reference to "the Legal Aid Board" in any law must, with the changes as may be required by the context, be construed as a reference to "the Board" established under section 2 of this Act.

Transitional arrangements

26. (1) (a) Any person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, held an office in terms of section 4(1) of the Legal Aid Act, 1969 (Act No. 22 of 1969), is deemed to have been appointed in terms of this Act, and remains in that office for a period of 12 months after the commencement of this Act.

(b) The Board as constituted under paragraphs (a), (c), (d) and (e), must, in the 12 month period referred to in paragraph (a), facilitate the composition and appointment of a Board as provided for in section 6, after the expiry of the 12 month period referred to in paragraph (a).

(c) Despite paragraph (a), the chief executive officer of Legal Aid South Africa holding office at the time of the commencement of this Act is deemed to be a member of the Board for the 12 month period referred to in paragraph (a), who is thereafter eligible for appointment in terms of section 15.

(d) Despite paragraph (a), the Board, as constituted in terms of paragraphs (a), (c) and (e), must, as soon as possible after the commencement of this Act, but not later than three months thereafter, nominate the three persons referred to in section 6(1)(d) for purposes of appointment by the Minister in terms of that section.

for the 12 month period referred to in paragraph (a), who are thereafter eligible for appointment in terms of that section.

(e) The Minister must, as soon as possible after the commencement of this Act, but not later than three months thereafter, designate one of the persons referred to in paragraph (a) as deputy chairperson of the Board for the 12 month period referred to in paragraph (a).

(2) Any person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, was employed by the Board under the Legal Aid Act, 1969 (Act No. 22 of 1969), continues in that employment and is deemed to have been appointed in terms of this Act.

(3) Anything done in terms of a law repealed by section 25 and which could have been done in terms of this Act is regarded as having been done in terms of this Act.

(4) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), all measures which, immediately before the commencement of this Act, were in operation and applied to office-bearers, officers, employees and agents of Legal Aid South Africa, including measures regarding their remuneration, pension, leave and any other terms and conditions of service, continue in operation and apply, until they are amended or repealed by this Act.

(b) No measure referred to in paragraph (a) may, except in accordance with an applicable law or agreement, be changed in a manner which affects those office-bearers, officers, employees and agents of Legal Aid South Africa to their detriment.

(5) All assets, rights, liabilities and obligations which, immediately prior to the commencement of this Act, vested in the Legal Aid Board under the Legal Aid Act, 1969 (Act No. 22 of 1969), pass to Legal Aid South Africa established under this Act on the date of commencement of this Act.

(6) (a) The Legal Aid Guide in force on the date of commencement of this Act remains in force until it is withdrawn and replaced by regulations made under section 24(1) and the Legal Aid Manual referred to in section 23(1).

(b) The first regulations and Legal Aid Manual referred to in paragraph (a) must be made and published within 24 months after the commencement of this Act.

Short title and commencement

27. This Act is called the Legal Aid Act, 2014, and comes into operation on a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.
